

SHARK CAGE DIVING, SAFARI DREAMS, RED LIPS AND TWO TICKETS TO CAPE TOWN, SOUTH AFRICA...

KIRSTY HILTON: ESM NSW JOURNEY'S TO INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR 2012

HOW DOES IT FEEL TO ACHIEVE INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR?

I am so excited about achieving International Seminar for my husband and I, we have never been to South Africa and we can't wait!

YOU AND YOUR TEAM EXPERIENCED SOME TREMENDOUS GROWTH IN QUITE A CHALLENGING YEAR. WHAT WAS IT THAT MADE THE DIFFERENCE FOR THE HILTON TEAM IN 2011?

It has been an amazing year and I have enjoyed working with a team of such talented women and men. I believe that the big difference started with me having big goals and that flowed down to my team... many of them had big dreams too so we had lots of promotions to Group Leader along the way. Personally, I stick to a proven path and do what my Upline Louise Buechner has taught me then share this with the team. I tell everyone if they want something bad enough and be persistent and not give up, they too will have great success in this business.

INSIDE KIRSTY'S TRAVEL BEAUTY CASE...

I can't live without Ultra Care+ Facial Peel Crème, Ultra Care+ Complexion Refiner, NC Velvet Finish Mineral Foundation Powder SPF 12 and of course, a gorgeous lip gloss – I love NC Glossy Shine in Lilac Lily.

TOP TIPS FOR RUNNING A SUCCESSFUL NUTRIMETICS BUSINESS:

- 1 Work your business like you paid a million dollars for it.
- 2 Help others do what you do and watch your business grow.
- 3 Continually desire to grow and improve, there is always something new to learn.

WHICH NC COLOUR WILL YOUR LIPS BE WEARING THIS VALENTINE'S DAY?

I will definitely be wearing Kimono, I love it!

WHAT'S ON YOUR CAPE TOWN 'TO DO' LIST?

Going on safari is on the top of my 'to do' list, I would love to see the big five in the wild. Shopping is right up there of course and I am seriously contemplating shark cage diving... but don't hold me to it!
